OVERVIEW

GNW Power Australia Pty., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as GNW) warrants that, subject to the terms and conditions below, we provide a voluntary warranty for AW7500(WM5000).

General Terms

We warrant that we will repair or replace (at our option) a Product or any part thereof, if such Product is faulty or defective in manufacture or materials for a period of 10 years battery life cycles warranty from the Warranty Period shall commence from the earlier date of the following:

- (1) the date of when the first installation of the warranted product is completed
- (2) 180 days after the date of shipment from GNW Power Australia Pty Ltd

We will consider replacing Products with identical products. However, due to technological advancements, that product may not be available. In these cases, we will supply another type of product of at least the same value and standard, although the replacement product may be a different size, shape, color and/or capacity. Due to technical advances, it is possible that replacement parts or components may not be compatible with the other components already installed. Any costs relating to the incompatibility of systems is not covered by this Warranty.

If the products are replaced within the warranty period, the remaining warranty period will be automatically transferred to the replacement products. In this event, you will not receive a new certificate.

This Warranty only covers repair or replacement of the defective product. It does not cover:

- Any costs incurred by the end-user or the installer in normal or scheduled maintenance of the Product.
- Any other costs such as transportation, travelling and accommodation cost of personnel etc.
- Subject to any law to the contrary, any damage to property, personal injury, direct or indirect loss, any consequential losses or other expenses arising from breach of this Warranty.

performed by a third party not authorized by GNW Power Australia Pty Ltd.

- From the use of any spare parts not manufactured, sold or approved by us in connection with the repair or replacement of Product; or because of the interconnection of the Product with products of another manufacturer; or because of any other defective or malfunctioning parts in the system into which the Product has been installed.
- Where the nameplate or serial number of the Product is modified, altered or not readable.
- If damage has occurred during transportation; or other damage not affecting energy generation, and which are of a visual nature (e.g. surface scratching).

This Warranty does not apply to damage caused by continued use of the Product after it is known, or would have been known with regular servicing, it is defective.

Customer's assistance in returning the faulty unit

Following the receipt of the replacement unit, the customer must return the allegedly faulty unit in the same packaging material as the replacement unit. GNW Power Australia (Pty) Ltd. will supply all labels, documentation and freight details for the return of the allegedly faulty unit. All allegedly faulty units must be returned within 10 working days of the receipt of the replacement unit. A qualified installer must be available for the unit exchange and re-commissioning. The replacement unit will be covered by the original warranty terms of the faulty unit for the remaining warranty period of the faulty unit.

Distributor Responsibility

In the event of an equipment failure or fault, it is the Distributor responsibility to work directly with GNW Power Australia Service Center to limit the return of non-faulty equipment. GNW Power Australia Service Center will work with the Distributor to rectify the fault or fault message through telephone support or with direct PC links. Note: To qualify for further compensation and a replacement unit, the distributor/installer must first contact GNW Power Australia and fulfill the distributor/installer's responsibilities under Section "how to make a claim"

Wrong Deliveries and Transit Damage

Wrong deliveries, incorrect or damaged packing and transit damage claims are not warranty claims. Such cases should be referred to Customer Service on GNW Power Australia (Pty) LTD.

How to Make a Warranty Claim

If a Product fails within the Warranty period, the end-user must stop using the Product or the system in which the Product is installed by isolating the Product from any energy source, make a claim as soon as possible and follow all instructions provided by us, or our representative or agents. Otherwise, we will not be responsible for any further damage to the Product.

When contacting us by email, please have the following information to hand:

- Your name, address, postcode and a telephone number where you can be contacted
- The model designation and serial number of the Product (you can find both on the Product)
- Proof of purchase with date and address of the vendor
- Installation date and installation address
- Signed commissioning report or protocol
- Contact details of the installer
- A complete and detailed list of observed faults and other information which could help

Costs of Submitting a Warranty Claim

For invalid claims under this Warranty, we will not be liable for the end-user's costs in making the warranty claim, including transport or return freight.

In respect of valid claims under this Warranty, the end-user will not be charged reasonable costs associated with the making of a warranty claim, including warranty processing costs, the cost of replacement parts or freight. Reimbursement for necessary and reasonably incurred costs or expenses in making valid warranty claims under this Warranty may be claimed from us. Documentary evidence in support of such a claim will be required.

Deadlines for Submitting Warranty Claims

We aim to rectify genuine quality problems as a priority. This is generally achieved by investigating why defective products have failed and by introducing immediate corrective action measures to prevent re-occurring warranty failures. It is therefore critical that all claims under this Warranty are promptly submitted to us as soon as the Product fails, and in any event, within three months of knowledge of the matter of event giving rise to the claim. No consideration will be given to claims under this Warranty which are made after this period.
